New Business

There have been informational meetings at the Lewis County Courthouse in regards to the Proposed Compressed Air project. Much discussion with Town of Watson, Town of Croghan, Lewis County and Compressed Air Company. There will be more meetings in the future.

Highway

Steve submitted some of the FEMA paperwork. He has received confirmation that some monies will be sent soon. The Town is awaiting payment.

He submitted the 284 Agreement – a contract of what roads will be worked on this year.

He was made aware that there is a road salt shortage from the current contact company. He was also notified that he will be able to get salt from another company if they cannot provide what is needed.

Planning Board

There has not been any paperwork submitted to the Town of Watson Planning Board, to this point, in regards to the Hydrostor – Compressed air project.

Planning Board reviewed applications for the vacant planning board chair at their meeting February 5, 2025.

They submitted the applicant of Daryl Lehman to the Town Board for appointment.

Motion was made by Jeff Lyng and seconded by Steve Stogsdill to appoint Daryl Lehman to fill the vacant chair for the Planning Board until 12/31/2029.

Zoning Board

James Pawloski stated that at their meeting February 10, 2025 that they discussed the future plan for application submittal. Once the application is dropped off, with the application fee, with the Town Clerk, that application will then go to the next scheduled monthly meeting for review. If any other paperwork is required, the applicant will be notified and then, if necessary there will be a public hearing scheduled for the following monthly meeting.

He stated that currently all non-conforming lots are required to go to the Zoning Board for approval, even when the application meets all rules/regulations except for acreage. He stated that after speaking to the Code Enforcement Officer, Ward Daily, that he feels that Ward can make the decision to grant a building permit without going to the Town of Watson Zoning Board.

Meeting held the second Monday of each month. Meeting minutes posted to the town website:
